R/V ANGARI: WHAT HAS SHE BEEN UP TO?

R/V ANGARI RESUMES OPERATIONS THIS MONTH!

This spring, our self-quarantined crew cared for and maintained R/V ANGARI in order to be ready to return the vessel to work once it's safe to do so. We have been monitoring the changing regulations in our region and are now ready to run expeditions! Please contact us for more details and to learn how we are prioritizing scientists' health.

YARDWORK HIGHLIGHTS

Big thank you to Rybovich for helping us keep R/V ANGARI in tip top shape!

- New bottom paint
- Protective coatings on running gear
- New zincs
- New strainers & grates
- Bow & stern thruster maintenance
- A/C descaling
- New underwater camera

EDUCATION & EVENTS

ENGAGING ONLINE EVENTS WITH MARINE SCIENTISTS

Since April we've been working with our partners to deliver distance learning opportunities, including our Ocean Expert Exchange livestreams. These webinars enabled us to connect youth and adult learners with scientists who have participated in R/V ANGAR expeditions, and drew audiences from 21 states and 26 countries!

COVID COULDN'T STOP EARTH DAY OR CORALPALOOZA™!

Earth Day festivities went digital, providing opportunities for us to work with our collaborators and encourage people to learn about and protect the ocean and environment from home. While we hoped to participate in Coralpalooza™ in person as planned, we enjoyed supporting coral restoration and CRF via this year's online program.

ON LAND ANNOUNCEMENTS

ANGARI TEAM SPOTLIGHT

Rishabh is a rising sophomore pursuing a B.S. in Business Administration at the NYU Stern School of Business with concentrations in Finance and Entrepreneurship. Rishabh has held internships in the past dealing with budget outlooks and other financial evaluations. With ANGARI, he looks to gain more insight into the dynamic between private donors and partners, communities and other business metrics.

INTRODUCING #ANGARIDEEP DIVE

Join us on social media to explore exciting science topics every month! We'll be bringing you research, fun facts and expert insights, and you can participate by sharing your own photos, related experiences and knowledge using #ANGARIDEEP DIVE. June was all about staghorn coral and this month

we'll feature the yellow stingray!
